

Please ask me any details.

I have put the photos in which were taken of me in the dress at the shop but blurred out my face, not that I'm overly ugly, it's just you'd probably prefer to see your own face in the dress :-)

I also wanted you to see how easy it was to sit down in the dress too - which is important :-)

This beautiful mint light green dress I bought brand new for my upcoming wedding but I saw another one this year which I preferred, which is why I'm selling this one.

My camera doesn't really do this dress justice as I wanted to show you how sparkly it is but I cannot seem to get one, but it really does sparkle and catch the light lovely.

This pretty shiny dress which is suitable for a wedding, prom or any other party which you'd like to stand out in, is a size 18.

I'm a size 14 and I was told that it would be very easy to get it taken in to fit me, but obviously I haven't done this.

This dress is full length, strapless with a beaded front bodice and has very soft stays in, which helps if you're not wearing a bra.

The product is rough on all the way around and battered at the top side with several sharp beaks. The length of the size 11 is a size 12 at home with my fat foot. My only presumption is due to the quality and the very common abuse. Easy to move around and a good fit.

Underneath the top skirt layer is a fine silky-type material (not silk) which swishes quite nicely :-)
Under that is 2 tiers of netting and under that layer is some more swishy-material with a single tier of netting. (If it is too much netting for you, some can be removed). See photos.

I wish I could keep this amazing dress but alas, I'm only getting married once :-)

I bought it last year and it has been kept in a full length bag in a pet-free and smoke-free home.

Thank you for looking,
