

GSRs offer the famous Soundgear sleekness, comfort, tone, and playability. Not only do GSR Soundgears look and play better than everything else in their price range, but their rigorous inspection and set-up is the same as Ibanez's more expensive models

The mahogany body, maple neck, and rosewood fingerboard provide a warm tonal character, with sparkling highs and a thick, firm low end.

The GSR200 Gio offers the same looks, tone, comfort, and rigorous set-up as some of Ibanez's most expensive basses, ensuring that players on a budget get the same quality as the professionals.

Crafted from Mahogany, Maple, and Rosewood

Its strong and lightweight mahogany body produces beautifully warm tones, adding excellent depth to the bass' overall tonality. The maple neck and rosewood fingerboard provides a bright tonal character and the firm lower fretting allows you to have plenty of

Expressive Linux Pickup

The bass guitar comes equipped with two powerful Dynamix bass pickups in a classic "P/J" configuration. This tried-and-tested combination, of a humbucker "P" style pickup for neck pickup and a single coil bridge pickup, allows the instrument to achieve everything from warm jazz sound to thunderous rock tones. The two pickups are wired to individual volume controls and share a master tone control, letting you dial in the perfect sound for your playing style.

Incorporating individual volume controls for each pickup, the GSR200 allows you to blend both pickup tones to create unique full sounds. The master tone control shapes the bass' frequency response, letting you dial in your own desired preference. Additionally, the built in PHAT-II EQ circuitry allows active style bass boosting via its one channel EQ preamp, deliver a beefy and deep tone for when you need to add an extra layer of thunder.

The GIO Series - GRS 200

It seems most manufacturers have their own entry-level ranges of Basses these days and fortunately Ibanez isn't an exception to this rule. Ibanez GIO series Basses are exceptional, each instrument is built to the same high quality specifications as that of its premium counterpart. So if you're looking for an entry level Bass Guitar by a historically renowned guitar maker then look no further than the Ibanez GIO series Basses.

About Ibanez Basses

Over the past 30 years, Ibanez have always been at the forefront of developing the right tools for players pushing the boundaries of music.

For decades, Ibanez designers and luthiers have been the embodiment of this ideology, pushing their skills to the edge of imagination, consistently creating some of the most versatile and unique instruments ever. Ibanez basses have been used on some of modern rock's most poignant albums of recent years. The preferred instruments of many awe inspiring bass players, amongst them Fieldy from Korn, Paul Gray from Slipknot and Peter Dinklage of In Flames, Ibanez Basses continue to be the first stop for learners and professionals alike, no matter what musical genre they exist in.
