The Sumvision Cyclone HD2 is an incredible set-top entertainment system. It houses a 1TB hard drive which can hold all of your home pictures, audio and movies, has a built freeview and a multiple array of connections. The Cyclone can store and play your movies from its massive 1TB hard drive. You can add more media via the USB slot or across your home network via ethernet and output to the telly via HDMI. Once on your LAN, you can easily manage the file system via your computer. It supports all popular High Definition and standard video modes.

Store and play all your music and output through the RCA (phono) connection.

Store and watch all your pictures using the built in slideshow. It has a built-in Twin freeview tuner with 1080p ready recorder so it's ready to record Freeview straight to your HDD. With the twin tuner you can watch your current channel and record a different channel at the same time. Has a sexy piano black finish and a front colour LCD display. Specs:
