i have two, rather gorgeous Westie puppy's who would like to curl up on your lap or settee please! They are 7 weeks old now and are hoping to come to your house on 1st July when they will be 8 weeks old. We have a little girl and a little boy left out of my girls litter of 7 beautiful puppies. They will come to you having had a parvo injection, vet check, micro chipped, wormed every 2weeks since birth. They will have a diary with them of all their antics from birth until you take them, I will give you enough food for you to take so that you can change their diet without upsetting their tummies. I will ALWAYS be here for you with advice should you need it and keep in touch if you want to let me know how things are going, I do like to know you and they are still happy together. Please give me a ring or email if you would like to know anything I may have.
