This is my Nord Electro 5D 73SW. I am selling due to it no longer playing it as I have recently changed my rig set up. It is a great keyboard with lots of life, I have had it as a key part of my playing for the last 18 months and would recommend this to anyone as a great all-round keyboard. Of course you can find out more info on what the actual board does itself on Youtube or the Nord official site so I won't explain all the features however I will say that there is a slight dent on the upper panel. This doesn't affect the sound in any way and is hardly noticeable unless looking for it specifically. There is also a slight scuff to paint work on the left side panel which is even less noticeable than the dent. I am including the official Nord soft case (RRP £80) and a M-Audio SP2 Sustain pedal (RRP £16) so paired with the Electro (RRP £1649) this is a real!
