Location South East, Berkshire

Surrey based collective In Retrospect return this August alongside Shakedown Productions with their first Summer Charity Music Festival - Reboot, a multi-live band and DJ showcase, covering roots & blues, rock, folk, broken beats, electronica, reggae and hip hop.

Sands At The Bleak House will play host to an exciting day and evening with a special themed BBQ in the garden, full restaurant menu, prize raffle, vintage market, kids area, outdoor stage and a selection of the finest ales and wines from the bar.

ALL proceeds from the festival will be donated directly to our chosen charities: British Heart Foundation & Woking and Sam Beare Hospices.

Live music starts from 3pm with support from the In Retrospect DJ collective throughout the day who'll be spinning some classics from the blues, reggae, hip hop and northern soul eras.

Later in the evening we plan to turn it up with some special guest DJ sets to take you through until 11pm.
