For sale is my Nissan Navara Mammoth sports adventure, with 119000 miles on the clock. I've had this truck for a year now and it has been awesome, I bought it as a test for my business to see if it was worth having.. it has proven invaluable!! so its time to buy something a bit newer.

It drives very well, I have had it serviced twice in the last year including the belts, a new clutch and duel mass fly wheel. Also put a new set off tyres on when I bought it which have done no more than 10000 miles. Its not in perfect condition as it is 10 years old, but I would say the condition is good for its age. I will answer any questions as quickly as possible. the only thing thats not working is the stereo. The fold down soft top is included and also a roller shutter that is not fitted.
