Feel free to make an offer. This is my van, that's treated me very well over the past 5/6 years. Selling as I have a new job with a company car, if I could keep my van I would. A few little scuffs and marks here and there but overall in good condition for the age. Cheap to run and insure and is perfect for a self employed tradesman who doesn't need a massive van. I've installed rear parking sensors which are very useful. I have 2 seat covers to come with it (not in photos) and a metal racking/shelf unit with drawers that I can sell also. Happy to answer any questions you have. Thank.
