MOORING PLOT FREEHOLD LAND AND BERTHS AT MAIDSTONE, KENT. Rare opportunity to buy land with river frontage onto the non-tidal River Medway. This is a stunningly beautiful area, fairly level, with grass, shrubs and various mature trees. You buy a good sized area of land, where you can picnic, fish, bring items ashore, etc., etc. A country lane leads to the site and you can drive right up and on to your land. A new riverside track reinforced for vehicles on our area only is maintained by the Council. However, it is impossible to obtain permission for a building. Whereas the site appears to be right in the country, it is in fact, on the edge of Maidstone, the County Town of Kent, with excellent facilities and transport links. The picturesque East Farleigh lock is upstream giving beautiful tranquil cruising to Tonbridge, passing medieval villages, bridges, pubs etc. Downstream, there is the Malta Inn and Allington lock, which can accommodate large vessels although there is a height restriction of 3.6 metres (11.8 feet). The lock leads on to the enormous and varied cruising area of the tidal Medway, Swale and their many creeks, the River Thames, the UK canal system (details available) and the open sea. The land is being sold from £2000 per metre of river frontage. You can buy any multiple of this. The minimum purchase is 10 metres (32.8 feet) There is no vat, but nearly all the land is now sold.
