The time has come to part with the caddy. Silver, 1.9tdi, twin sliding doors, MOT until December, recently serviced, new front brakes, new front tyres, cambelt /wpump last year. Located in Warminster, Wiltshire.

Bought to pursue my hobbies mountain biking, kayaking as a versatile small van. Used as a mini camper van for around 50 nights over the last two years of ownership. I've been commuting 80 miles per day for the last 18 months without any issues along with a few trips to scotland.£65 fuel covers 550miles

Interior:Great fun with the rear seats which all clip in and out individually as well as sliding forward and back and stowing up if extra boot space is needed. Floor cubby holes, flip up rear trays on the back of front seats. double draws on the front seats for extra storage along with roof storage. Fully carpeted rear with LED lighting all insulated which is nice and pleasant in cool and cold weather also reduces the noise when driving which is a bonus. Having the seats to carry passengers is a great bonus and has made the van the go to-do it all vehicle!

Exterior:-Audi alloys fitted by previous owner, tyres on the rear 50% worn, new tyres up front. All correct load rating.-The body is far from perfect bear in mind its 12yrs old, surface bubbling on the front archs beginning to appear, scratches on the sliding doors along with a paint scan on the nearside sliding door. -underneath is sound and rust free.

Mechanical:In the last two years its had a few things replaced when necessary:-Intercooler last year as the old one split at the seam suspected stone came through the grill on the motorway -Lower boost new front tyres.-New front disks and new front belt and new front belt at 14000 new front brake fluid, new battery, fully serviced, fuel filter, cabin air filter, battery

Drives great I wouldn't hesitate to jump in it and travel anywhere, it drives like a car.

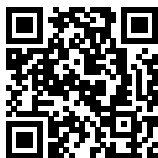

In summary A great little van, the bodywork is tidy and defiantly worth mentioning as I hate anyone turning up expecting a mint condition caddy I've listed the van honestly to avoid wasting your time as well as my own. I'm still insured until the 26th August so will happily take you for a comprehensive test drive to prove the drives brilliantly Van is still being used daily so mileage will increase.
