At Polished by Pebbles, we can provide a totally flexible range of domestic cleaning services that's completely tailored to suit your requirements. If you'd like a regular domestic cleaning service, we can come as often as you like – every week, every fortnight, or just once a month, depending on your needs. But if you don't want to be tied into a regular contract, that's fine too! We also offer a one-off deep cleaning service – ideal for:

A thorough once-a-year spring clean
Preparing buy-to-let properties between tenants
Making your home as good as new after messy building works or decorating projects
Cleaning your old home after you've moved out, and your new home before you move in Or maybe just getting your house spick and span before – or after – a big party
