WORLDwrite's feature-length documentary on the life, writings and politics of the great Trinidad-born revolutionary C.L.R. James, is now available on Vimeo on demand. This means in the UK, USA and elsewhere you can stream or download it, which may assist college and university screenings too.

The film interweaves never before seen footage of C.L.R. James with unique testimony from those he knew, alongside interviews with the world's most eminent scholars of James' life, work and politics. The result is an epic documentary which grapples with issues from colonialism to cricket, from slavery to Shakespeare, from Marxism to the movies and from reading to revolution.

The film is now available to rent or buy for a modest fee on Vimeo here:
