We adopted a lovely white Persian lady. She's affectionate and a real character! However, we live on a main road and she loves to wander. We are worried she will be run over as has no fear of cars. She also has no fear of other cats and dogs! She needs a home where she can wander safely. We are really sad to let her go so will be making sure she goes to the right home.

She hasn't been neutered. She has been given flea treatment, wormed and vaccinated. She will be 2 in.
