Orange, 1 owner, This popular learner legal CBR125 really has only got 384 miles! It is in stunning condition and is like new! The CBR125 is easy to ride, comfortable, gives good fuel economy and, above all, is a Honda. The CBR125R has been yet another of Honda's success stories. In its seven years of production, the sporty-looking learner 125cc has sold by the ship load all over the world, with good reason. A larger rear tyre (130-section) has given the bike a new solid feel. Along with its new bodywork the bike rides and looks much bigger than a learner bike. The North West's finest family run motorcycle dealership, £3,250 p/x
