Alfie

15.2hh Fresian x TB between 5-7years old

Dark brown/black

Alfie is for sale as a project as he was advertised as a riding and quiet and was only unsuitable for novices because he was earshy but unfortunately that was not true.

Alfie's good points:

- He is a beautiful boy with lovely paces, as seen through lunging.
- He can be very gentle in the stable and loves a cuddle
- Loves to be groomed and pampered
- Has great prospect with the right home
- He is a lovely character and really wants to try and please and be gentle

Alfies riding history:

• When viewing Alfie, excuses were made about a saddle not being available and so on, so I did not see him ridden. But I was shown pictures and a very short video. When trying to ride him at current yard, he wouldn't stand at the mountain block and when getting on, I was barely in the saddle before he bolted off and bronced me off. This happened another time before I got a second opinion and it was found that at the time he had sore back but since then he has had his teeth, back, tack and feet checked and he is sound. I haven't however tried to ride him as he has shattered my confidence.

Other information:

• Alfie can be very strong and will take advantage sometimes.

• Alfie is very spooky and will not be ridden in his stable. He can be ridden in another horse's stable separation easily and will act differently in another stable. He can be ridden in his own stable if he has an experienced knowledge of a never home. He is a horse who needs someone who can dedicate to ride him right from the basics.
