I have one absolutely beautiful miniature smooth haired dachshund who is looking for a loving home. He is ready to leave for his new home asap!!! as he is now 4 months old (I still have him due to numerous time wasters).

He is a very handsome little black and tan boy, who is fully vaccinated (will need a booster injection in a years time), this means that he is ready to socialise/play with other dogs. He has also had two health checks with my vet - which was fine on both occasions.

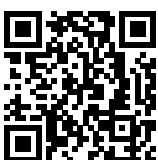

He has been wormed regularly and has had the best possible start in life.

He will leave for his new home with four weeks insurance and a contract of sale for everyone's peace of mind.

Any further questions, please feel free to contact me.

I am reducing the asking price as I am due to go on holiday and I really need to find him a home before I go.

Mum and dad are both here and will be very happy to meet
