I am a MA qualified and accredited Spanish teacher, with 13 years' experience in teaching and tutoring students from 9 to 90 from beginners to advanced levels.

I have taught adults and university students, helping to prepare them for their examinations, and taught university students studying to be Spanish teachers and interpreters and tutored school children for their examinations and exam revision. I have also taught in-company courses, taught in private colleges and led training courses for colleagues in the methodology of teaching Spanish.

You can read some of my references by clicking above.

My teaching approach is communicative allowing the student to develop speaking fluency. However, my lessons are based around the student's needs, so I adapt them as necessary such as helping with grammar or studying a particular syllabus.

Lessons can also focus on preparing students for GCSE and A level exams as well as DELE exams (all levels)

I am available for one to one lessons, I can travel to where you would like to have the lesson, small groups, as a tutor in private colleges and lessons via Skype.

I am based in Walthamstow (Zone 3).

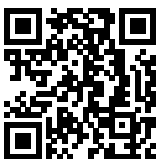

Teaching qualifications and references on request.
