Since the new regulations came in 2015 for the knowledge of Life in the UK test requirement, for Indefinite Stay and British Citizenship applications, people are struggling to pass this exam.

We are offering Life in the UK Test exam preparation classes on weekends. We have realised that people need some help and guidance to pass this test for their ILR or British Citizenship application. We have also seen that mostly these people are working hard during weekdays so weekend is their ultimate choice. Our experienced teacher will help you to understand the context from Life in the UK book so you can pass your Life in the UK exam at first attempt.

If you live far away and are unable to attend our courses, then you can purchase books from us to help you prepare at home.
