For sale is my pride and joy BMW E46 330ci Sport Auto LPG Converted.

This car has been very well looked after. Has just under 133000 miles on the clock but feels like new, nothing for these engines. Mileage will go up as it's in daily use.

Good strong engine and gearbox with decent performance. Have owned the car for over 2 years now and it has had a premium LPG Tech conversion with HANA injectors costing £1000. The LPG tank has been fitted where the spare used to be. Also the LPG filler cap is hidden where the petrol cap is. So no nasty cuts in the bumpers.

Car comes with 18inch BBS dish alloys, stainless steel Longlife exhaust with quad tips, which work and are not just for show. It also has a nice sound to it (see Youtube link).

Black leather interior, black headliner and carbon effect trims. Interior is in very good condition with only the general wear on the driver seat. No rips or tears.

OEM looking Android headunit fitted. Comes with bluetooth connectivity + reverse camera + sat nav + screen share + video playback. The steering wheel controls also work with the headunit.

All speakers upgraded to Ground Zero speakers and also fitted an Infinity subwoofer as the factory sound quality was lacking! (the amp and wires could do with a bit of tidying up)

Car has a angel eyes and fog on lights

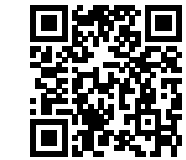

Car is a real car with a smile on a 2 year old's face

The bad bits unfortunately:

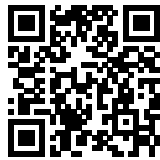

- 1 Marks on the paint as seen in pictures.
- 2 Yellow oil light comes on every time you start the car. Sump oil sensor needs replacing. Haven't done this as it's had an oil service with Castrol Fully synthetic oil less than 2500 miles ago.
- 3 Rough running on cold start up and may throw a misfire. Turning the engine off and back on a gain will reset the issue.

4. Handbrake is weak. Will need tightening.

6. Rear parking sensors work intermittently. It hasn't really bothered me as I have the reverse camera fitted.

I have been as honest as I can be about the car. It really must be seen to be appreciated. Service history, receipts and V5C present.

Only selling to buy another car which I have seen.

Car was listed before on ebay but has been removed for some reason. Price now reduced to £2195
ONO, try me. Any questions, call or
