Bush AG66SW Single Gas Cooker White, bought from Argos September 2017, never used as requires electric plug point for oven light and to spark ignition, which my kitchen doesn't have as electric points too far away. Still has 10 mths manufacturing warranty.

The cooker has never been used, Argos would not come back to collect as outside the 14 days return policy for white goods. It is still currently retailing at Argos for £229.99.

Conventional oven with 4 gas burners. Push button ignition. Auto shut-off. 2 shelves. 62 litre usable capacity.

Size H90, W60,.
