all three have very different personality's developing already! billy is the biggest of the 3 and his personality matches he is a typical lad always up to mischief, he knows when he has done wrong the biggest sign is when e is sat good on his bed (he will of pooped someplace) he loves shoes and taking socks of your feet. tilly the little girl hides behind he big brothers she loves being fussed over and when there food is out all three will run to the cage it is in the boys will get in no problem but tilly cant quite climb over yet so she will come to you and lead you to where she wants to go for help! she loves her toys. bob he is my daughters favourite and is used to being handled as he is never off her knee, if she picks up billy or tilly he will sit and stare at her until she picks him up. he is the biggest eater he will sit in the middle of the plate and eat around himself just so the other 2 cant get any. they are all friendly and love to.
