Hi! I'm Martin Callahan and I have been a private tutor of English as a Foreign Language (EFL) for many years. I gained my CELTA (Cambridge English Language Training for Adults) certificate at International House, London in 2002 and I have taught a wide variety of students here in London.

If you need help with your English, whether with reading, writing, speaking, listening (or all of these), please get in touch with me and let me see how I can help you. I will also check your university or college essays for mistakes and improve the way you express yourself. I can teach you entirely by SKYPE, avoiding any need for travel or delays, but if you prefer a lesson in your home, please ask me.
