The space

This spacious farmhouse comprises of large open-plan kitchen, dining room and lounge complete with a gorgeous ornate wood burner, these rooms in particular are brimming with the house's original character. Going through the house you'll find a utility room through to an exceptionally well proportioned and stunning bathroom.

Up to the 1st floor you are met with a breathtaking view straight up to the roof timbers neatly framing the traditional French chandelier; the oversized landing comprises of a lounge area, a desk for working on and an extensive library.

Up onto the top floor, this mezzanine level with a second lounge, light feel and third bedroom gives a perfect hideaway spot if you just need a little downtime.

The red 'chesterfield' sofa and the sofa on the landing are both purpose build 'sofa-beds', should you need the extra sleeping space.

The house has been beautifully renovated to the highest standards while retaining its original character. This house could have had many more bedrooms, but the owners have opted for a more spacious and stunning design, rather than just trying to get the most number of rooms in a given space.
