Do you need french courses ?

I am a french teacher with more than 5 years experience in teaching in different institutions and for different levels.

I taught in junior school, high school, language centers, companies and private courses.

I am native in french and graduated in french literature. I can adapt to all the levels, all the ages and all the specific needs.

And above all, I try to make my students have fun while they learn, and make them advance as quick as possible, in strong bases.

Please don't hesitate to call me anytime for more details.
