https://www.freeadsz.co.uk/x-5633 67-z There is a serious amount of money's worth of ornaments here, some of which are pretty rare. If I were to sell them individually I'm pretty sure that I could get more money for them ,but I want to sell them as a bundle as Winnie the Pooh is no longer the in thing in our house, so it's time for somebody else to appreciate them.

This is obviously Collection Only due to the weight of them and I really would not want to take the risk of sending so many breakable things through the.
