I am looking for help with my 92yr old nan who lives in Basildon. Basic duties will be heating up and serving lunch time meal, giving medication, emptying bin, washing up a couple of dishes and giving companionship within the hour. Will occasionally require personal care. 5 days per week with one week being 3 week days and and a Saturday & Sunday, the other week being mon-fri. Occasionally will require two calls a day. I do not need nvq's but reliable, honest and caring female is a definite. Some experience is preferable but not essential as we can discuss this on interview. This job is to start on the 15th of December £8 per
