I am not a professional legal advisor. But I possess a particularly good skill in writing letters/e-mails of appeal, complaint, claiming what's owed etc.

In every case I DO look up legal rights, laws etc, to ensure there are no mistakes. Letters are written as if to be from yourself, so the language is professional but realistic enough that it has come from you.

I do my best to ensure that you only have to send one letter/e-mail to resolve your dispute (so far that has been the case) BUT if you don't - I will see to it that we do.

I'm a person for the people through & through. I'm here to help those who cannot afford the extortionate prices that come in tow with legal professionals. Especially if it's not a big case but you still want a solution.

We will have a discussion via email with all the details, where I can then give a quote as it all depends on how much time it will take me researching, writing, proof reading and completion. I may email every now & then for more info if needed along the way.

Be sure to get in touch if you have any.
