Senior brains need to stay alert and entertained. Seeing Art through the lens of Science, and leaning more about Science from an artistic approach are great ways to spend memorable time revisiting past knowledge, sharing ideas and skills and ... maybe even learning many new things you never even thought you might like. Bring together a group of friends or neighbours or both, and set up a workshop for January 2018, to start off the year amazingly inspired. Visit our website <https://www.stellaria-youngminds-ltd.com/> for further details and to.
