The renowned wildlife photography competition from the Natural History Museum is back with 100 spectacular images.

From frozen wastelands and peculiar species, to tropical paradises and fascinating animal behaviour; this year's selection is a call to action – a plea to band together and protect our fragile planet.

Wildlife Photographer of the Year is the most prestigious photography event of its kind, providing a global platform that showcases the natural world's most astonishing and challenging sights.

Now in its 53rd year, the competition receives almost 50,000 entries from 92 countries.
