Brian Exton Guitar Tuition. The Best Way to Learn Guitar

If you are interested in learning how to play the electric, acoustic or classical guitar, take lessons with me and you will rapidly progress. Whether you're a complete beginner, trying to teach yourself but getting nowhere, want to learn a new style, perform in a band, expand your existing techniques or just play the guitar for personal enjoyment, I have the expertise to guide you in the right direction and help you achieve your musical ambitions.

I'm a highly-experienced musician and have been teaching guitar, performing and writing music for over 20 years. I have also studied theory of music, keyboards and composition. Unlike group lessons and those teaching just the basics or strumming, I offer individual tuition up to advanced level and will help you vastly improve your techniques, play any style, learn popular songs and create your own music. Step-by-step you will cover both finger-picking and plectrum methods, rhythms, lead, riffs, correct finger positions, chords, chord sequences, melodies, harmony, timing, scales and more.
