the wedding centre in Studley is a friendly family run business that believes the wedding preparation should be enjoyed as much as the day. You can be certain that our friendly professional manner and over 30 years experience means your wedding in safe in our hands. We can dress most of your wedding party from one place. Making us familiar and approachable to the whole family. As well as our off the rail bridal gowns at affordable prices we also have a range of current romantica of Devon dresses available to order and competitive prices. Our grooms are dressed in the latest fashion or traditional menswear by peter posh and is available for hire. We have our own range of neckwear to match our bridesmaid dresses that gives you the unique chance of a colour match from the same place. When it comes to your little princesses our affordable flower girl and communion dresses really do fit the bill. We have other services available through the wedding centre . Pop in for a consultation so we can help take the stress and confusion away from your special
