I am experienced and qualified within the primary school settings. If you need any support with SEN or EAL lesson and want your child to achieve and improve I can help.

Helping you to feel ready and confident for your SATS subjects are, English, maths and science, handwriting practices of needed.

I follow and set the activities around the school curriculum in England.

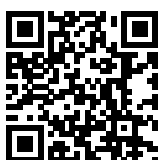

Building high self esteem and making you feel happier, and confident while in your school classroom.

Private tutoring is there to help your child to reach the expectations and above and also to help them feel confident.

The tutoring will take place at my place or can travel to yours.

I am based in Sandwell and Birmingham areas.
