Sensory Saturday is a stay and play session for children and parents. I am offering the opportunity for 25 children with their parents to take part in a sensory session led by myself. I will set up 5-6 activities where the children will have free flow access to investigate, discover and explore through senses. Parents will be able to meet up with other parents as parenthood can be lonely, as well as join in with a fun session without the hassle of clearing it up! I will be offering support and guidance to encourage regular sensory sessions at home. This activity will be aimed at children aged 9 months +
 Light refreshments will be provided
