We're proud to be a totally independent company and not part of a national chain established in 1973. Our personal approach and feedback from our customers convinces us that our service will beat the national chains for value, expertise and reliability every time.

We are a family run business with Dave and Maria, husband and wife running the business with their daughter Annie as the Marketing Director. They all work full time and can be seen working in a variety of different areas across the business. Dave has worked for Freeway for over 40 years, with skills in all.
