If you have you been offered a settlement agreement at work or if your employer started discussions with you about leaving their employment under a settlement agreement (also known as a compromise agreement), you need to talk to me today.

I am Geoff Caesar, a specialist employment solicitor with many years of experience in advising on, reviewing, negotiating and signing-off settlement agreements.

Contact me today, free of charge, about your settlement agreement. I will:

Advise you on the terms of the proposed settlement agreement and any terms of your contract of employment which should be amended (such as post employment restrictions).

Advise you on any potential claims you could have against your employer, such as discrimination under the Equality Act 2010, which may affect the amount of money your employer should be agreeing to pay you.

Ensure you get the very best deal both financially and under the other terms of the settlement agreement.

Represent you and negotiate with your employer and/or their legal representative, if you would like me to do so.

Sign-off your settlement agreement in accordance with the provisions of section 203(3) of the Employments Rights Act 1996.

All my services in relation to your settlement agreement will be performed at no cost to you as I will work to the legal fees to be paid for by your employer.

Contact me today on 020 7491 8466 or 07558 667256 (call 07558 667256 for full phone
