The entire unit is in sound condition but is completely derelict, needing extensive renovation.

the Post House section is all in "As Was" original condition and worthy of historic renovation.

The roof is sound but in need of a small section repair.

Enormous loft with skylights. Water, electric and mains sewage are installed every

These properties have been severely neglected and to legal title for years. The current title is and wanting up to date is a fantastic historic property. Pays-de-la-Loire is the Seine department in the region de-la-Loire" in north-western France. Situated near to Beaumont Sur Sarthe, north of Le Mans and the Le Mans race circuit and south of the historic town of Alençon.

The Route National was the main artery of France, but since the advent of the Paage Autoroute it is now a relatively quiet road, catering mostly to tourists and local through traffic.

Convenient access to the Paage, motorway approx. 6 hours' from Calais.
