Blind Mate, a similar format to the once popular TV show Blind Date, sails into Shoreham-by-Sea returns for the March instalment of the monthly stage show of the dating game.

The Long Room at Shoreham's Crown & Anchor is the venue for the fun and games on Friday 16 March (8.15pm-late).

A trio of contestants will be asked three questions by a potential suitor, without seeing each other, so that the man or lady choses a date solely based on their answers and personality rather than looks.

The fun evening on Friday 2 February kicks off with the doors opening at 8pm, warm-up act from Graeme Collard follows around 8.15pm before it is showtime.

Winning contestants can bag either a Night Away in a hotel or a romantic meal for two.

There's a DJ set afterwards yes the show ends, so that everyone can chat to the eight contestants who appeared on stage!

Tickets cost £6 each or £10 a pair, available from the venue or via www.Rightflirt.com.
