Hi there, my name is Sophie. I have been a beauty therapist for 13 years and strive off making my clients look and feel their absolute best. For most of my career I have worked within salons, I am now focusing on bringing my treatments to the comfort of your own home. I do not believe in harsh chemicals and animal testing is a huge no-no. All of my products are of a high quality and I would not use anything on you that I would not use on myself. I believe we are currently living in a rather toxic world and there is a huge lack of understanding when it comes to product knowledge and what we are putting into our bodies, I believe we can still look and feel beautiful but by taking an ethical approach.
