Hi I'm Emma, a mobile personal trainer based in Barnsley, South Yorkshire. I also work at the gym group, Doncaster. My aim is to make training fun, goal based and something you can do unsupervised. I cover all areas of Yorkshire and bring the gym to you. I offer a completely free of charge consultation and taster session to allow you to decide if I'm the right fit for you. Please don't hesitate to get in touch if this is something you would like to take advantage of. Why wait? The time is going to pass.
