Family History Research England tracing families histories throughout England & Wales.

Do you often wonder who your forefathers were but don't have the time to research it yourself or are in need of a special gift that is totally unique, Family History Research England can do this for you. We offer a range of packages to suit all budgets or if non of these fit I can tailor make a package to your needs.

I also can visit the archives of Sheffield, Derbyshire and Pembrokeshire to do general look ups within the field of family history.

I have over 8 years family history research and qualifications in the field of history/genealogy.
