A late 19th Century french side cabinet, rosewood veneer on an oak framework. It has 2 doors and 2 draws, the right hand door has a full height brass espagnolette double locking bolt with a escution complete with key. The draws are dovetailed front and back with oak sides back and bottom. There are removable pegs either side to prevent the draws from falling if pulled too far. Re-french polished to a very high standard showing the matched diamond shaped rosewood veneer to its best. 2 fluted and turned pillars to the front corners and 2 turned round bun type feet. The quality and workmanship in this piece is second to none and outstanding, the effort gone into the piece is first class, you will find it hard to find this quality around. This is collection only by you or courier which you need to arrange, payment is via PayPal only and no other form of payment will be accepted. Once you have paid for the new owner will take full responsibility for its removal from the house in Weston-Super-Mare in Somerset. I an advertising this on behalf of my father in.
