IPSWICH COUNSELLING

Are you looking to talk to a qualified counsellor who can help you make sense of how you are feeling?
 I am a BACP Registered Counsellor holding a Foundation Degree in Counselling and Diploma in Therapeutic Counselling.

I offer a safe, warm and supportive environment where you have space to explore anything which feels important to you. I trust your ability to find your own way forward if offered a counselling relationship which is genuine, understanding and accepting. I think of myself as a companion; someone who will accompany you and work at your pace, focusing on areas of concern for you.

It may be important for you to know that I have experience of working with something you wish to bring. Below are some of the areas clients have wanted to explore:

Depression, anxiety, childhood sexual abuse, domestic abuse, low self-esteem, loss, bereavement, relationships, sexuality, stress, illness and caring responsibilities.
 £40 per 50 minute.
