

Peak District Photography Workshop - 5th March 2016

Location

Yorkshire and the Humber, South Yorkshire

<https://www.freeadsz.co.uk/x-583309-z>

Join Alan Ranger Photography and a group of aspiring photographers on a workshop to the Peak District!

The Peak District is ripe with a range of landscapes perfect for practising a variety of photography techniques and styles. Whether you're looking to capture vistas, abstract shots, black and white photos; there's bound to be something that captures your eye!

Exploring the rivers and woodlands of the Peak District, Alan Ranger will offer support throughout your photography ventures and help you improve your skills in a way that best suits you.

If you can't attend this photography workshop, take a look at the other photography courses, field trips, workshops and online mentoring services that are available throughout the year. When it comes to photography, there's not just one way to progress in your journey!
