Genuine sale of virtually brand new Crosswater Glide Basin Monoblond Chrome Tap (RRP:£200) with very small chip (which has needed to be pointed out to people!)

It was installed last week for 3 days until I noticed a chip on top left hand corner. I was unable to prove it was not my bathroom fitter that damaged it therefore retailer wouldn't replace it so I bought a brand new replacement as I didn't want any imperfections in my new cloakroom as it was meant to be the main feature as it's a lovely looking tap. (My husband still can't believe it as he hadn't even noticed the chip!). See pictures. I have the original box and packaging.

The total height of this basin mixer tap is 184mm, the projection from centre of the body to centre of the spout is 159mm and the measurements at the base of the tap are 62.4mm wide and 65mm deep.

Happy to post recorded delivery for £6 charge. Or happy for someone to come and collect.

It has a 15 year manufacturer's guarantee.
