Beautiful Vintage 1920's to 1939 Art Deco Royal Winton Grimwades China Serving Dish from the Green and Pink Tiger Lily Range (also sometimes referred to as the Hibiscus Pattern).

This is a very attractive and collectable dish - particularly if you already have other pieces in the set!

It is pale green, with a gold rim and a raised pink Tiger Lily on each of the two side handles.

The dish being offered for sale here is in very good used vintage condition. It has no chips or cracks or even hairline fractures. The gilt edges are rubbed, commensurate with its age and previous use. There is fine clean age related crazing across the dish - which is quite normal in an item of this era. As this crazing is only apparent upon close inspection it does not detract from the overall decorative value of the dish.

Please study the photographs provided to make your own assessment regarding the condition of the dish, in particular the manufacturer's marks on its underside.

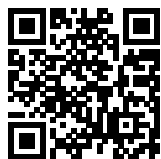

Size: approximately 13 cm x 15.5 cm.

This is a private sale from a pet and smoke free home, and is only being sold as I need the space.

Given the dish is fragile I would prefer the buyer to collect, and pay cash on collection please. However, I would be willing to post the dish to a location within mainland United Kingdom, at the buyer's own risk, for an additional £7.25. In this situation I would make every reasonable effort to pack the dish carefully so as to help ensure its safety. Regret no returns accepted. Thank.
