Welcome to Happy Languages!

We are an Italian and Spanish language school located in central London: our team is composed of mother tongue professional teachers who are highly qualified in language teaching, promoting with enthusiasm our native languages.

If you visit our website, quickly it stands out how much our offer is wide!

We do group classes in the evening on weekdays and in the morning during the weekend, at our schools in the City and in Holborn.

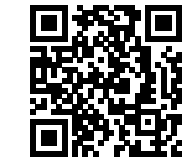

If you're not be able to plan a course, you can choose our private one-to-one lessons: according to your personal teacher you can schedule your classes whenever and wherever you prefer. We do also private lessons online where you will learn just switching on your Skype!

Have you got only few days free? Choose one of our intensive course!

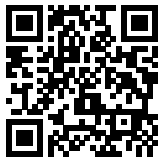

You will develop your knowledge of grammar and vocabulary and practice all language skills; speaking, listening, reading and writing.
