My uncles bengal cat has had kittens.

They were born on the 4th of feb of this year. And are now 8 wks old. And ready to be rehomed.

Mum is full bengal and the dad is half bengal half domestic. You will be able to meet the mother.

4 kittens. 2 boys and 2 girls.

They are deflead, dewormed and are litter trained. Weaned off the mums milk.

Vaccinations are new owners responsibility and are due from 10 wks old.

Feel free to come and meet them.

£350 for each kitten.

They are very sweet and very playful. Very hyper and excellent jumpers. I would recommend a cat tree !
They are currently on Whiskas dry food and fresh.
