Girls Bicycle, white with gears (20 GBP)

Girl's white push bike for sale, with gears, suitable age 7/8yrs upwards depending on how tall they are! My daughter had this bike when she was 8 and it lasted her until she was about 10. She is now 5' 2" and too tall for it! It has not had much use and has been stored in the garden shed for the past year. It is in good working order although the chain looks rusty I am sure a bit of oil and use would sort that out. Brakes and tyres are good and it is in good condition. Perfect for those promised spring!
