Nestled in a quiet Cul de sac location with access to excellent schools, local shops, Three Bridges Station and motorway networks is this stylish 3 bedroom semi detached home. Offering excellent accommodation as well as being totally refurbished throughout there is nothing to do but simply move in and enjoy. Just from the approach to the house it is clear that you are going to see something special as the pretty front garden and pathway provide a great first impression and guide you to the front door. Once inside you will not be disappointed as the re configured entrance hall provide a warm welcome and open into the downstairs accommodation. The whole house has been bought back to life with neutral tones throughout and the lounge which is situated to the front of the house makes for the perfect place to relax after a long day and put your feet up. If you love to cook and entertain, then the newly fitted kitchen dining room will wet the appetite with its clean lines and many cupboards to store all those pots and pans as well as cooker, hob with extractor and space for utilities to cook up a storm. It also overlooks the garden and has double doors onto the patio and newly landscaped garden - Alfresco dining anyone? A good nights sleep is always a must and with three bedrooms to choose from it will be a breeze. The master bedroom with views to the front of the house has built in wardrobe space for all those clothes whilst the second is at the rear overlooking the garden. Last but not least is the newly fitted bathroom. Why not awake the senses with the power shower or soak away the stresses of the day with a relaxing bath. Externally the rear garden has been landscaped with easy to maintain artificial grass and patio area. No need to worry about cutting the grass, just sit in the sunshine and have a lazy Sunday instead. There is even a garage en block to keep the car dry or good storage space depending on your needs. This is a super house and a must see!
