Professional Hypnotherapy & psychotherapy to help you make permanent changes in your life!

The big problem for us all is not to learn but to unlearn.

We hold on to ideas that we accepted in the past, and we are afraid to give these beliefs up.

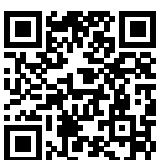

Preconceptions about everything, what is right or wrong, true or false, good or bad are embedded so deeply in our thinking that we honestly may not know that they are there.

Most of us have already established outlook and beliefs, which we hardly ever decide to reject.

Unfortunately, some of those convictions might be entirely wrong or disadvantageous to our well being.

Because of that, it is of great necessity, that we know how to "unlearn" our assumptions and make a place for new ones. Rejecting past/limiting beliefs is the key to freedom.

Take that first step!
